June 12                    Shrek

Mike Myers, Eddie Murphy, Cameron Diaz, John Lithgow
Rated PG; 89 minutes; 2000

Beautiful princesses, handsome princes, witches, ogres, and fire-breathing dragons turn up in almost every fairy tale. They're all in this computer-animated adventure, but their roles, and the surprising plot twists are anything but expected in this fun adaptation of the children's book by William Steig.

June 19                    Forrest Gump

Tom Hanks, Robin Wright, Gary Sinise, Mykelti, Williamson, Sally Field
Rated PG-13; 137 minutes; 1994

Forrest Gump is a kind simpleton who unwittingly finds himself in the middle of major milestones in American history. His involvement in Watergate and Vietnam, friendships with John Lennon and President Johnson are all chronicled in a one-of-a-kind film that combines humor, heart-stopping emotion, and clever effects.

June 26                    Footloose
Special performance before the movie by the Iowa City Community Band

Kevin Bacon, Lori Singer, Christopher Penn, John Lithgow

When a city boy (Kevin Bacon) moves to a small Midwestern town, he discovers some disappointing news: rock music and dancing are forbidden by the local government. Determined to bring some '80s-style life into the town, he sets about changing the rules and eventually enlists the help of the daughter of the man responsible for the law. Rousing music, a talented cast, and plenty of trouble make this an entertaining musical drama.

August 7                      Rain Date OR Singin' in the Rain

Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds, Donald O'Connor
Not Rated; 102 minutes; 1952

Considered by many to be the finest musical comedy of all-time, SINGIN' IN THE RAIN is sheer delight. Betty Comden and Adolph Green wrote this wonderful film about the time when movies were changing from silent to talkies. The songs range from the hilarious "Make 'Em Laugh," performed by Donald O'Connor, to the delicate "You Were Meant for Me" and the show-stopping classic "Singin' in the Rain" solo by Gene Kelly.

August 14                      Finding Nemo

Voices by: Albert Brooks, Ellen DeGeneres, Alexander Gould, Geoffrey Rush
Rated G; 100 min; 2003

The wizards at Pixar take us under the sea to the world of clownfish, Marlin, and his son Nemo. When the defiant Nemo takes off from his dad and gets captured by a tropical fish-seeker, he finds himself stuck in a fishbowl in a dentist's office. Marlin and his well-meaning but wacky friend, Dory, embark on an epic journey to find his son.
